Marquette Bank Foundation Awards $168,000 in Scholarships to High School Students

Annual Scholarship Program celebrates 40 years

Chicago, IL (June 21, 2007) — Marquette Bank awarded scholarships to 48 graduating high school seniors in a ceremony recognizing the accomplishments of these students. Scholarship recipients received a distinctive award and a $3,500 check payable to the college or university of their choice at a ceremony in front of friends and family held June 9, 2007 at the Chicago Midway Marriott. Students were chosen by their High School's Principal or Senior Counselor based on the criteria of academic excellence, community service and financial need.

The Marquette Bank Foundation was formed in October, 2003 by Marquette Bank's Board of Directors to enhance and perpetuate the Scholarship Program. While the Marquette Bank Foundation is the administrator, the scholarship program is a long-standing tradition at Marquette Bank with its inception in 1967. Each year, Marquette offers local parochial and public high schools the opportunity to participate in the program. The program has grown substantially over the forty years, granting over $1.63 million in scholarships to 1,071 high school students in the Chicagoland area.

This year's recipients of the Marquette Bank Foundation scholarships (listed alphabetically by school, then recipient) were: Amos Alonzo Stagg High School – Megan Kingsbury; Andrew High School – Michelle Kuehnle; Argo Community High School – Poshlyn Nicholson; Benito Juarez Community Academy – Maria Rios Hernandez; Bogan High School – Ana Vega; Bolingbrook High School – Teriauna Bland; Brother Rice High School – Kevin Krillic; Carl Sandburg High School – Michele Bailey; Cristo Rey Jesuit High School – Yadira Vieyra; Curie High School – Slyvania Martin; De La Salle Institute – Monica Gonzalez; Englewood Academy – Kianna L.
